

The Pearl Laguna A Yoga, Hiking, Cleansing Retreat

Finding a pearl in an oyster shell is no easy task.

However, finding one in Laguna Beach came with little effort. It was solely word of mouth...and a find it was indeed. Breathtaking both visually and physically (literally required) is The Pearl Laguna, an intimate wellness retreat nestled among century-old oaks and sycamores in Laguna Canyon. Catering to no more than 14 guests at one time, this twelve-bedroom, twelve-bath sanctuary offers weeklong and multi-week retreats.

The Majestic property and program was created by yoga pioneers and natural health advocates, Geo & Katresha. The Pearl offers a calming escape. The program is designed to promote optimal health and to revitalize the body and spirit through the transformative power of nutrition, yoga, hiking in nature, relaxation and positive loving surroundings.

This is a program of rejuvenation. Guests come to improve their health, renew their spirit, balance their lifestyle and take their fitness to the next level—overall emerging from their stay stronger and healthier with a renewed vitality and clarity. The Pearl is also a place of peace and solitude where guests decompress from the busyness of every day. Relish the tranquility found here and enjoy the splendor of afternoon rest and massage to restore your natural state of being. Our Pearl wisdom: Take the short trip south for an excellent way to start the New Year.

Clockwise from top: At The Pearl Laguna in Laguna Beach, California, yoga by the beach is a mainstay. One of the many paths flanked by lighted trees. A group yoga session at sunset. Bells can be heard ringing in the calming escape.
